Course Description:
The turmoil of Middle Eastern life has its roots in ideas and lifestyles developed over thousands of years. This course examines the land and people, analyzing the role of ethnicity, religion, politics, economics, and values in every day behavior.

Disclaimer:
Some of the writings, lectures, films, or presentations in this course may include material that conflicts with the core beliefs of some students. Please review the syllabus carefully to see if the course is one that you are committed to taking.

Teaching and Learning Methods:
This course is a combination of lectures, discussions, and video presentations. While each meeting will be illustrated with various visual aids, students will be advised to search for additional visual material to better comprehend the discussed topics. While students are encouraged to initiate and participate in all discussions, they must remain respectful of all classmates and the professor.

Evaluation Methods:
This course requires patience and a lot of tolerance. Students are expected to:
1. Attend class meetings.
2. Do their readings in advance so they can fully participate in any discussions. The readings based participation may impact your grade.
3. Take all required exams on time. Upon a valid request, special arrangements might be made with the professor (e.g., a different exam date).
4. Complete and turn on time their papers.
5. Offer their opinions and argue their points. All must be done in good and edited English.
6. NO PLAGIARISM OR CHEATING IN ANY SHAPE OR FORM.

Exams, Assignments and Grades:

Attention: Term papers must be turned in electronically and as hard copies on time. This is very important because the date is set up electronically so after a deadline is gone so are your points. In order to submit your exam/assignment electronically you must do so using Turnitin (for instructions see http://tacc.utah.edu/instructor_resources/plagiarism.html; Video explanation is provided at http://www.turnitin.com/static/videos/student_enrollingclass.html; for quickstart see http://www.turnitin.com/static/pdf/tii_student_qs.pdf). Class ID # is … Enrollment password is …

Two in-class exams and a term paper are planned. However, in the event of an expansion of some topics due to students’ interest and/or current affairs, any in-class exam might be replaced with a take-home exam. Students will be graded 1/3 for each exam, 1/3 for a term paper – a student’s independent research on a topic of his/her choice (of course, relevant to the class) but approved by the professor.

There won’t be any extra-credit assignments in this class. Each exam and/or assignment and/or paper will be graded using the Letter-Grade scale (“A” as the highest, “E” as the lowest [no-pass] grade). The final grade will be calculated accordingly by setting up values of the Letter-Grade scale using the 4-Point scale.

Required Format:
The required length of the research paper/essay is 10 pages plus bibliography. The bibliography must include at least 4 additional (to the class material) sources such as scholarly articles and/or books. Internet sources such as Wikipedia are not acceptable. Basic guidelines for writing a college paper can be found at http://www.collegeboard.com/student/plan/college-success/10358.html
You, as a student, are responsible for making sure that your proper email is registered with the University of Utah.

Required Readings:

Readings for Week #2:

Comments: Some basic knowledge of monotheistic religions originating in the Middle East is assumed and will be enhanced during this week’s meetings. However, if you feel lost, you can do a quick review using, for example, the following sources:

Christianity: http://www.religioustolerance.org/christ.htm that starts with an interesting quote: "Christianity started out in Palestine as a fellowship; it moved to Greece and became a philosophy; it moved to Italy and became an institution; it moved to Europe and became a culture; it came to America and became an enterprise." Sam Pascoe.

Judaism: http://www.religioustolerance.org/judaism.htm that starts with factual information that is often overlooked by people of others faiths who believe in the so-called “Jewish conspiracy.” “Although Jews comprise only about 0.2% of the human race, Jewish influence on the world has been vast -- far more than their numbers would indicate.”

Islam: http://www.religioustolerance.org/islam.htm that starts with the statements from the Qu’ran and hadiths focusing on peace. The last quotation is the one that we all have to remember: "Jim Jones, David Koresh and Meir Kahane do not typify Christianity and Judaism in the eyes of the civilized West, but those same eyes are prone to see Osama bin Laden and Mullah Muhammad Omar as typifying Islam," Richard Bulliet.

Faculty Responsibilities:
“All students are expected to maintain professional behavior in the classroom setting, according to the Student Code, spelled out in the Student Handbook. Students have specific rights in the classroom as detailed in Article III of the Code. The Code also specifies proscribed conduct (Article XI) that involves cheating on tests, plagiarism, and/or collusion, as well as fraud, theft, etc. Students should read the Code carefully and know they are responsible for the content. According to Faculty Rules and Regulations, it is the faculty responsibility to enforce responsible classroom behaviors, and I will do so, beginning with verbal warnings and progressing to dismissal from a class and a failing grade. Students have the right to appeal such action to the Student Behavior Committee.”
(www.admin.utah.edu/ppmanual/8/8-12-4.html)

Academic Misconduct:
Please familiarize yourself with the University of Utah CODE OF STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES (“STUDENT CODE”) at http://www.admin.utah.edu/ppmanual//8/8-10.html
The following is an excerpt from this CODE explaining specific actions that won’t be tolerated in this class.

“2. “Academic misconduct” includes, but is not limited to, cheating, misrepresenting one's work, inappropriately collaborating, plagiarism, and fabrication or falsification of information, as defined further below. It also includes facilitating academic misconduct by intentionally helping or attempting to help another to commit an act of academic misconduct.

a. “Cheating” involves the unauthorized possession or use of information, materials, notes, study aids, or other devices in any academic exercise, or the unauthorized communication with another person during such an exercise. Common examples of cheating include, but are not limited to, copying from another student's examination, submitting work for an in-class exam that has been prepared in advance, violating rules governing the administration of exams, having another person take an exam, altering one's work after the work has been returned and before resubmitting it, or violating any rules relating to academic conduct of a course or program.

b. Misrepresenting one's work includes, but is not limited to, representing material prepared by another as one's own work, or submitting the same work in more than one course without prior permission of both faculty members.

c. “Plagiarism” means the intentional unacknowledged use or incorporation of any other person's work in, or as a basis for, one's own work offered for academic consideration or credit or for public presentation. Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to, representing as one's own, without attribution, any other individual’s words, phrasing, ideas, sequence of ideas, information or any other mode or content of expression.

d. “Fabrication” or “falsification” includes reporting experiments or measurements or statistical analyses never performed; manipulating or altering data or other manifestations of research to achieve a desired result; falsifying or misrepresenting background information, credentials or other academically relevant information; or selective reporting, including the deliberate suppression of conflicting or unwanted data. It does not include honest error or honest differences in interpretations or judgments of data and/or results.”

The following sanctions will be imposed in this class for a student engaging in academic misconduct:

1. A failing grade for a specific assignment, paper, exam, etc., without possibility to re-write it, re-take it, etc. The instructor will make an attempt (through an email and/or a note on the assignment/exam/paper, etc.) to contact a student to discuss the student’s conduct before granting an “E.” It is the student’s responsibility to respond to the instructor.

2. The second offense will be sanctioned with a failing grade for the whole course. In such a case, the following rule of the University of Utah CODE OF STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES is applicable and will be followed: “If the faculty member imposes the sanction of a failing grade for the course, the faculty member shall, within ten (10) business days of imposing the sanction, notify in writing, the chair of the student’s home department and the senior vice president for academic affairs or senior vice president for health sciences, as appropriate, of the academic misconduct and the circumstances which the faculty member believes support the imposition of a failing grade.”

3. For more information concerning sanctions for academic misconduct (additional sanctions might be imposed) and your rights and procedures to appeal these sanctions please refer to the aforementioned CODE.
If you need more information and/or explanations please don’t hesitate to contact the instructor.

Non-Contract Note:
This syllabus is not a binding legal contract. It may be modified by the instructor when the student is given a reasonable notice of the modification.
